

Coronavirus Update March 26, 2020

Dear Friends and Patrons of Landmark,

Hope all is well with you and yours. We've moved beyond social distancing into full isolation in order to do our part to stem the spread of Covid-19 in our community.

We have cancelled all programs in the Jeanne Rimsky Theater and Doctors' Gym through May 31.

Here is an update on cancellations, postponements and new dates:

Very Hungry Caterpillar	New date: March 13, 2021
Carbon Leaf	New date: July 15, 2020
David Broza & Trio Havana	New date: September 12, 2020
KT Tunstall	New date: February 13, 2021
Aaron Neville	New date: August 16, 2020
Jarrold Spector	New date: September 26, 2020
Colin Quinn	New date: November 21, 2020
Bubble Mania	New date TBA
Joan Osborne	New date TBA
Rickie Lee Jones	New date TBA
Dixie's Tupperware Party	New date TBA

Once we have new dates confirmed, ticketholders will be offered these options:

- Keep your tickets for the new date
- Donate the value of the tickets to Landmark (tax deductible)
- Return tickets for credit to Landmark account (good through June 2021)
- Request a refund

These are difficult times for all of us. We are grateful to our patrons, artists and our entire team, and to our larger community for their loyalty and support.

As an arts organization, we believe in the power of communal experiences. We look forward to returning to our mission as soon as is safely possible. Until then, be well.
